Nowhere epitomises chick and duckling season like Pensthorpe Natural Park, near Fakenham in Norfolk, where from Saturday 6 to Monday 22 April 2018 visitors can join its Easter Eggstravaganza!

Seasonal craft-making activities and an Easter-themed trail will send adventurers across the breadth of the 700-acre reserve.

For the best way to see behind the scenes at the reserve visitors can book a place on the Pensthorpe Explorer*. Hop into the Land Rover and Trailer for an 'off road' exploration of the estate to discover areas of interest, learn about Pensthorpe's history and go wildlife spotting!

After learning what nature has to offer out on the reserve, head over to award-winning eco-play areas WildRootz and Hootz House, which are popular with families wanting to burn off some steam! Inspired by features of the natural world, these intrepid outdoor and indoor play zones challenge children with dens, tunnels, streams, towers, slides and zip wires!
